

How do I know if this trip is for me?

We welcome Jews of all backgrounds and levels of observance. This trip is for growth-oriented people, whether you're just starting out on your Jewish journey or you're fully observant and want to share your passion for Judaism with others. You don't need prior involvement with Project Inspire, although spots are primarily given to people who live near a Project Inspire branch.

Can I come if I've already been on a Project Inspire retreat?

If you've attended a three-day retreat with us, you're more than welcome back! If you've been on two or more trips, you may still be eligible to return as a Project Inspire Ambassador. An Ambassador is a repeat participant who refers a friend who's never been on one of our retreats and attends along with them.

How do I get to Southbury and home again?

The trip will begin at a meeting spot in Stamford, CT at 11am on Sunday, May 7. Once your application has been accepted, we will advise in the coming weeks about the exact location. We will provide transportation from the Five Towns and Brooklyn or you can arrange your own transportation to the meeting spot, as we do not encourage anyone to bring their own vehicles to the hotel. The trip will end at 6pm at the same meeting spot where it begins.

Is there any way I can get my own room?

Yes. We can book you a single-occupancy room for an additional $250. If you're interested, please check the box on your payment form which you will receive upon acceptance. Availability is limited, so we encourage you to apply as early as possible.

Can you accommodate my dietary restrictions?

We will do our best to accommodate all of your needs. Please make sure to include all dietary needs on your registration form, once you have been accepted.

Can I come with friends?

Absolutely! Sharing experiences with others is at the heart of Project Inspire's mission. Please feel free to recommend the retreat to people you think would enjoy it. We'll even offer you a $100 referral discount if your friend ends up joining us!

What can I expect to experience on this trip?

Project Inspire retreats are a great opportunity to connect with Jews from different walks of life as we share adventures and discover what we have in common. On this trip, you'll enjoy exciting activities and fascinating Jewish learning against the beautiful backdrop of Connecticut. Check out the website to view a previous trip itinerary.

What is the refund policy?

Registration can be canceled with a refund minus a $100 cancellation fee until 30 days before the Retreat. After this date, we cannot provide a refund.
